Assistance Dog Access. It's the LAW.

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) guarantees that people with a disability have the legal right to use an assistance dog in all areas open to the general public. This federal law is applicable in every state. Please be aware:

- "No pet" policies do not apply to assistance dogs,
- even in facilities that sell or prepare food.

 Assistance dogs come in all breeds and sizes, and are not required to wear special identifying items when they work.
- Businesses may not ask for proof of a disability or ask for proof that an assistance dog is certified.
 Assistance dogs may only be removed from public for
- excessive barking or disruptive behavior.

Assistance Dog Access. It's the LAW.

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) guarantees that people with a disability have the legal right to use an assistance dog in all areas open to the general public. This federal law is applicable in every state. Please be aware:

- "No pet" policies do not apply to assistance dogs, even in facilities that sell or prepare food.
- Assistance dogs come in all breeds and sizes, and are not required to wear special identifying items when
- Businesses may not ask for proof of a disability or ask for proof that an assistance dog is certified.
- Assistance dogs may only be removed from public for excessive barking or disruptive behavior.

Assistance Dog Access. It's the LAW.

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) guarantees that people with a disability have the legal right to use an assistance dog in all areas open to the general public. This federal law is applicable in every state. Please be aware:

- "No pet" policies do not apply to assistance dogs, even in facilities that sell or prepare food.
 Assistance dogs come in all breeds and sizes, and are
- not required to wear special identifying items when they work.
- Businesses may not ask for proof of a disability or ask for proof that an assistance dog is certified.

 Assistance dogs may only be removed from public for
- excessive barking or disruptive behavior.

Assistance Dog Access. It's the LAW.

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) guarantees that people with a disability have the legal right to use an assistance dog in all areas open to the general public. This federal law is applicable in every state. Please be aware:

- "No pet" policies do not apply to assistance dogs, even in facilities that sell or prepare food.
 Assistance dogs come in all breeds and sizes, and are
- not required to wear special identifying items when they work.
- Businesses may not ask for proof of a disability or ask for proof that an assistance dog is certified.
- Assistance dogs may only be removed from public for excessive barking or disruptive behavior.

Assistance Dog Access. It's the LAW.

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) guarantees that people with a disability have the legal right to use an assistance dog in all areas open to the general public. This federal law is applicable in every state. Please be aware:

- "No pet" policies do not apply to assistance dogs, even in facilities that sell or prepare food.
 Assistance dogs come in all breeds and sizes, and are
- not required to wear special identifying items when they work.
- Businesses may not ask for proof of a disability or ask for proof that an assistance dog is certified.
- Assistance dogs may only be removed from public for excessive barking or disruptive behavior.

Assistance Dog Access. It's the LAW.

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) guarantees that people with a disability have the legal right to use an assistance dog in all areas open to the general public. This federal law is applicable in every state. Please be aware:

- "No pet" policies do not apply to assistance dogs, even in facilities that sell or prepare food.
 Assistance dogs come in all breeds and sizes, and are not required to wear special identifying items when they work.
- Businesses may not ask for proof of a disability or ask for
- proof that an assistance dog is certified. Assistance dogs may only be removed from public for excessive barking or disruptive behavior.

Assistance Dog Access. It's the LAW.

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) guarantees that people with a disability have the legal right to use an assistance dog in all areas open to the general public. This federal law is applicable in every state. Please be aware:

- "No pet" policies do not apply to assistance dogs, even in facilities that sell or prepare food.
- Assistance dogs come in all breeds and sizes, and are not required to wear special identifying items when
- Businesses may not ask for proof of a disability or ask for proof that an assistance dog is certified.
- Assistance dogs may only be removed from public for excessive barking or disruptive behavior.

Assistance Dog Access. It's the LAW.

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) guarantees that people with a disability have the legal right to use an assistance dog in all areas open to the general public. This federal law is applicable in every state. Please be aware:

- "No pet" policies do not apply to assistance dogs, even in facilities that sell or prepare food.
 Assistance dogs come in all breeds and sizes, and are
- not required to wear special identifying items when they work.
- Businesses may not ask for proof of a disability or ask for proof that an assistance dog is certified.
- Assistance dogs may only be removed from public for excessive barking or disruptive behavior.

Assistance Dog Access. It's the LAW.

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) guarantees that people with a disability have the legal right to use an assistance dog in all areas open to the general public. This federal law is applicable in every state. Please be aware:

- "No pet" policies do not apply to assistance dogs, even in facilities that sell or prepare food.
 Assistance dogs come in all breeds and sizes, and are
- not required to wear special identifying items when they work.
- Businesses may not ask for proof of a disability or ask for proof that an assistance dog is certified.
- Assistance dogs may only be removed from public for excessive barking or disruptive behavior.

Assistance Dog Access. It's the LAW.

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) guarantees that people with a disability have the legal right to use an assistance dog in all areas open to the general public. This federal law is applicable in every state. Please be aware:

- "No pet" policies do not apply to assistance dogs, even in facilities that sell or prepare food.
 Assistance dogs come in all breeds and sizes, and are
- not required to wear special identifying items when they work.
- Businesses may not ask for proof of a disability or ask for proof that an assistance dog is certified.
- Assistance dogs may only be removed from public for excessive barking or disruptive behavior.

- Allergies or fear of animals are not valid reasons for refusing service to someone with an assistance dogs.
- Businesses may not charge an extra fee to anyone with an
- assistance dog or seat the person in a separate area.

 Always ask before touching an assistance dog. Any form of distraction could cause problems for the handler.

Provided by: NEADS/Dogs for Deaf and Disabled Americans In partnership with Canines for Disabled Kids

For more information:
ADA	www.ada.gov
NEADS	www.neads.org
	978-422-9064

Access. It's the LAW.

Provided by: NEADS/Dogs for Deaf and Disabled Americans In partnership with Canines for Disabled Kids distraction could cause problems for the handler.

service to someone with an assistance dogs.

Allergies or fear of animals are not valid reasons for refusing

Businesses may not charge an extra fee to anyone with an assistance dog or seat the person in a separate area.

Always ask before touching an assistance dog. Any form of

· Allergies or fear of animals are not valid reasons for refusing

Businesses may not charge an extra fee to anyone with an

Always ask before touching an assistance dog. Any form of assistance dog or seat the person in a separate area.

distraction could cause problems for the handler.

For more information:
ADA	www.ada.gov
NEADS	www.neads.org 978-422-9064

Access It's the

- · Allergies or fear of animals are not valid reasons for refusing service to someone with an assistance dogs.
- Businesses may not charge an extra fee to anyone with an assistance dog or seat the person in a separate area.
- Always ask before touching an assistance dog. Any form of distraction could cause problems for the handler.

Provided by: NEADS/Dogs for Deaf and Disabled Americans In partnership with Canines for Disabled Kids

For more information:
ADA	www.ada.gov
NEADS	www.neads.org 978-422-9064
	9/8-422-9004

Access. It's the LAW.

Provided by: NEADS/Dogs for Deaf and Disabled Americans In partnership with Canines for Disabled Kids service to someone with an assistance dogs.

For more information:
ADA	www.ada.gov
NEADS	www.neads.org 978-422-9064

Access. It's the

- Allergies or fear of animals are not valid reasons for refusing service to someone with an assistance dogs.
- Businesses may not charge an extra fee to anyone with an assistance dog or seat the person in a separate area.

 Always ask before touching an assistance dog. Any form of
- distraction could cause problems for the handler.

Provided by: NEADS/Dogs for Deaf and Disabled Americans In partnership with Canines for Disabled Kids

For more information:
ADA	www.ada.gov
NEADS	www.neads.org 978-422-9064

Access. It's the service to someone with an assistance dogs.

Businesses may not charge an extra fee to anyone with an assistance dog or seat the person in a separate area. Always ask before touching an assistance dog. Any form of distraction could cause problems for the handler.

· Allergies or fear of animals are not valid reasons for refusing

Provided by: NEADS/Dogs for Deaf and Disabled Americans In partnership with Canines for Disabled Kids

For more information:
ADA	www.ada.gov
NEADS	www.neads.org
	978-422-9064

Access It's the

LAW

- · Allergies or fear of animals are not valid reasons for refusing service to someone with an assistance dogs.
- Businesses may not charge an extra fee to anyone with an assistance dog or seat the person in a separate area.
- Always ask before touching an assistance dog. Any form of distraction could cause problems for the handler.

Provided by: NEADS/Dogs for Deaf and Disabled Americans In partnership with Canines for Disabled Kids

For more information:
ADA	www.ada.gov
NEADS	www.neads.org
	978-422-9064

Access. It's the

- Allergies or fear of animals are not valid reasons for refusing service to someone with an assistance dogs.
- Businesses may not charge an extra fee to anyone with an assistance dog or seat the person in a separate area.
- Always ask before touching an assistance dog. Any form of distraction could cause problems for the handler.

Provided by: NEADS/Dogs for Deaf and Disabled Americans In partnership with Canines for Disabled Kids

For more information:
ADA	www.ada.gov
NEADS	www.neads.org
	978-422-9064

Access It's the

- Allergies or fear of animals are not valid reasons for refusing service to someone with an assistance dogs.
- Businesses may not charge an extra fee to anyone with an assistance dog or seat the person in a separate area.
- Always ask before touching an assistance dog. Any form of distraction could cause problems for the handler.

Provided by: NEADS/Dogs for Deaf and Disabled Americans In partnership with Canines for Disabled Kids

For more information:
ADA	www.ada.gov
NEADS	www.neads.org 978-422-9064

Access. It's the LAW

- Allergies or fear of animals are not valid reasons for refusing service to someone with an assistance dogs.
- Businesses may not charge an extra fee to anyone with an assistance dog or seat the person in a separate area.
- Always ask before touching an assistance dog. Any form of distraction could cause problems for the handler.

Provided by: NEADS/Dogs for Deaf and Disabled Americans In partnership with Canines for Disabled Kids

For more information:
ADA	www.ada.gov
NEADS	www.neads.org 978-422-9064
9/8-422-9004

Access.

